

ROCKEFELLER ON MONEY-GETTING

Is Something More In Life Than That He Says.

HUNDREDS VISIT THE MILLIONAIRE

Representative Men of Cleveland Express Their Confidence in and Esteem for the Man Who Has So Long Lived Among Them.

(By Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, Ohio, September 26.—Several hundred representative men of Cleveland called upon John D. Rockefeller at his home in Forest Hill this afternoon, and through Andrew Squire, a prominent attorney and L. E. Holden, proprietor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, expressed to Mr. Rockefeller their esteem for him as a citizen and as a great business man. The gathering included merchants, lawyers, clergymen, educators and men in humbler walks of life.

Rockefeller Eulogized.

After all the guests had been presented to Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Squire made an address to Mr. Rockefeller, giving expression to words of eulogy and regard for the man, whom he said had been a resident of the city for fifty years. Mr. Squire asked if it was not a question whether the man engaged in great commercial enterprises were not more entitled to monuments than to indiscriminate condemnation. Mr. Squire said that the Standard Oil Company, that its history taught a mighty lesson in quietude, harmoniously, continuously developing its great enterprise and supplying its products at reasonable prices.

Millionaire Responds.

After a brief address by L. E. Holden, President of the Cleveland Plain Dealer Publishing Company, in which he spoke in appreciation of Mr. Rockefeller's beneficent work for the city, Mr. Rockefeller made a brief address in response to the greetings which had been spoken. His remarks were almost entirely reminiscent of his residence in Cleveland and of the growth of the city. He said, speaking especially to the younger men present, that there is something more to life than mere money getting. "Turn your thoughts upon the higher things of life," said Mr. Rockefeller. "Turn your thoughts into channels of usefulness; look forward to a determination that something useful shall come out of your success. Let your question be: What shall be the fruitage of my career? Shall it be the enrichment of hospitals, churches, schools and asylums? Do everything you can for the betterment of your fellow man, and in doing this you will enjoy life the better."

MAN AIDED HIS BROTHER TO END HIS EXISTENCE

(By Associated Press.) COLUMBIA, S. C., September 26.—A special from Lexington, S. C., to the States says the grand jury has indicted Pegram Dargan for aiding and abetting Robert Keith Dargan in taking his own life by procuring and giving to his brother, Robert Keith Dargan, carbolic acid and other drugs with which he took his life on the 11th day of July, 1905. Mr. Dargan was president of the Independent Cotton Oil Company and of the Darling Trust Company, institutions which recently failed. Dargan committed suicide in July by taking poison.

THIEF ENTERS A STORE AND SECURES MUCH BOOTY

Mr. Horace Livsey, a man of about forty years of age, whose home is at Fort Lee, Va., was robbed of $250 in Richmond last night. He reported the robbery to the police of the First District, and on Monday, J. C. Bradley was assigned to the case. Livsey came to the city yesterday afternoon with the intention of depositing his money in some bank here. He arrived, presumably too late for banking hours and started out to "see the town." He saw it and incidentally saw a negro woman, who took from him his money. She is still at large.

WAS DESIGNED TO CURE DUCHESS OF DEAFNESS

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, September 26.—Dr. H. H. Holbrook, who yesterday performed an operation on the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, said to-day that the operation was not for throat trouble as reported, but was for a nasal difficulty. It was performed to remove a slight deafness, which resulted from a fall received by the Duchess in her youth. Dr. Holbrook said that his patient would probably be able to leave the hospital on Thursday.

GEORGIA MAN ARRESTED ON A PEONAGE CHARGE

(By Associated Press.) COLUMBUS, Ga., September 26.—W. A. Johnson, owner of a turpentine still in Webster county, and J. D. Skipper, his agent, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Brown to-day, charged with having kept Arthur Williams, colored, in a state of peonage. The hearing will be concluded to-morrow. The two defendants gave bond.

PROPOSED WILLE-RHULIN MILL WAS NOT ALLOWED

(By Associated Press.) SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, September 26.—The John Wille-Rhulin fight, advertised to take place here to-night, was called off. County Attorney Christensen having issued an order prohibiting the bout.

PREPARING FOR THE PRESIDENT

Richmond Committee Is Arranging for a Cordial Welcome.

HOWITZERS WILL ACT AS SPECIAL ESCORT

Elaborate Luncheon to Be Served at Masonic Temple and Speaking in Capitol Square—Will Hold No Public Reception—Arrive at Noon.

Elaborate preparations have been made for receiving and entertaining President Roosevelt by the special joint committee of the Council, of which Captain William H. Curtis, of Marshall Ward, is the chairman. The committee has met frequently within the past ten days, holding executive sessions and the programme is now about complete, and the President will arrive here on the 22:05 P. M. Seaboard Air Line train on October 18, and will remain until 7 o'clock P. M., when he will proceed on his Southern tour, over the same line. The programme will embrace a splendid luncheon at the Masonic Temple; a speech by the President in the Capitol Square and a drive to the points of interest about the city. Secretary Loeb has charge of the matter on behalf of his distinguished chief, and all correspondence on the subject is carried on by the committee with him. One of the most popular and well equipped caterers at the National Capitol has been engaged to serve the luncheon, and he will arrive here a day ahead of the Presidential party.

Howitzers As Escort.

The President's train is expected here promptly at 12:05 P. M., on October 18th, and the party will be met at the C. & O. Station by His Honor, the Mayor and the committee on receptions.

The police arrangements will be in charge of Captain Morgan R. Mills, who is a military man and has had much experience in the handling of men on public occasions, and twenty mounted Howitzers under Captain William M. Myers, will act as special escort and the most experienced carriage drivers in the city will be engaged to handle the vehicles bearing the party. The exact route from the station to the Jefferson Hotel, where President Roosevelt will be quartered during his stay here, has not been decided upon, but upon reaching Ninth Street, Grace will likely be followed to some point near the Jefferson, when Franklin will be used.

No Public Reception.

There will be no public reception, the President having communicated his wishes to the committee on this point, saying that his stay here will be too brief to permit of such a course. When the President shall have rested for a while at the Jefferson, he will be taken to the Masonic Temple, where luncheon will be served. The luncheon will be an elaborate affair. Covers will be laid for three hundred, and it is understood that the contract was awarded to the Washington caterer at $3,000.

Among those who will be invited to the luncheon are the President and past presidents of the Chamber of Commerce, and the secretary and directors of that body, the State officials, city officials and a few prominent Republican leaders from this city. In the latter class will be Judge L. L. Lewis, the nominee of his party for Governor, and a personal friend of the President.

After luncheon the party will be driven to the Capitol Square, where the President will make a brief address to the people.

On Historic Ground.

A stand will be erected for this purpose near the Washington monument, and it will be decorated with flags of the State and nation.

Prominent men will occupy seats on the stand, and if the weather conditions are favorable it is certain that a great crowd will gather to greet the chief executive of the nation.

After the exercises in the Square, the President will be driven about the city and shown the points of interest, and, returning, will rest at the Jefferson until called for by the committee to go to the station.

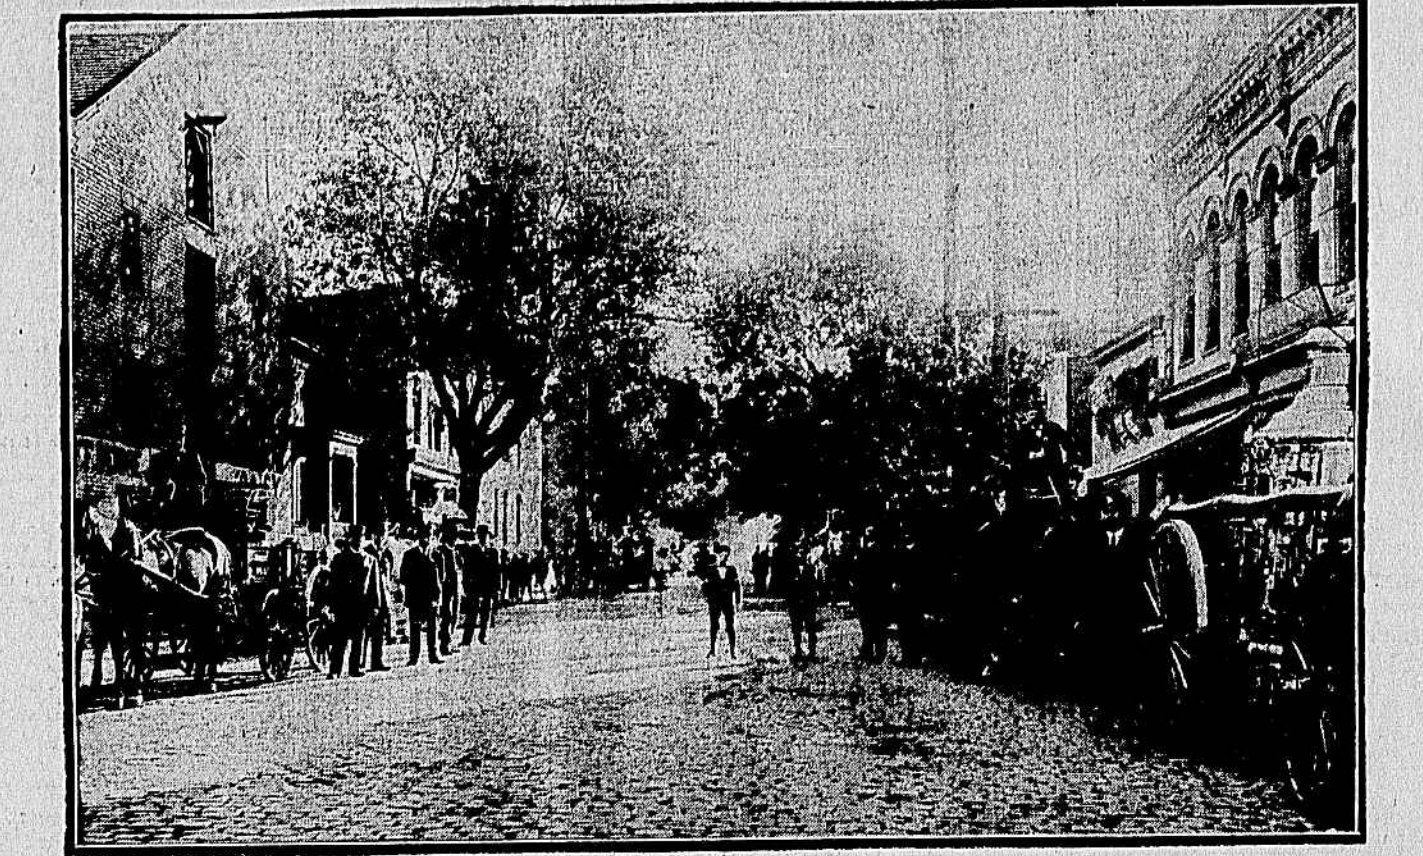

The gentlemen composing the committee are taking a deep interest in the matter, and are determined to make the President's visit a great occasion.

RECEIVER IS ASKED FOR LITTLE KANAWHA

Minority Stockholders After One of George Gould's Interests.

(By Associated Press.) CINCINNATI, Ohio, September 26.—Application for the appointment of a receiver for the community of interests known as the Little Kanawha syndicate, an organization controlling coal lands and railway interests in West Virginia, was filed in the United States Circuit Court to-day. At the head of the syndicate is George J. Gould, Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash, and William F. Guy, of St. Louis. The plaintiff is John S. Jones, holder of $100,000 worth of stock in the syndicate. He lives in Chicago. Judge Richards set October 6th for the hearing. A restraining order was issued, temporarily preventing the three defendants from "selling, contracting to sell, transferring or parting with" any property of the Kanawha syndicate. The order is numbered among other things it is alleged that the "antagonistic attitude" of Gould and Ramsey is detrimental to the welfare of the syndicate; that an effort is being made by the defendants to "bring about a change in the management of the syndicate in front of the expense of the lesser holders."

STIRRING STREET SCENE AT ANNUAL INSPECTION OF THE SPLENDID RICHMOND FIRE DEPARTMENT

OUR FIRE FORCE SHOWS UP WELL

Splendid Showing Made at Annual Inspection of the Department.

STREAM OVER CITY HALL

With Full Pressure Engine Sends Water Thirty Feet Above Steeple.

The appearance, equipment and work of the Richmond Fire Department in the annual inspection held yesterday afternoon were highly complimented by the Board of Fire Commissioners and citizens generally.

Every engine, truck and wagon was found in excellent condition and the exceptionally fine horses of the department were favorably commented upon. A crowd of not less than five thousand people eagerly watched the inspection while all along Broad Street the sidewalks were lined with spectators who enjoyed the parade.

Stream Over City Hall.

After inspection was over engine No. 5 gave an exhibition, throwing a stream of water fully thirty feet over the clock tower of the City Hall. At first trial when the steam pressure was low, the best that could be done was far below the top of the tower, and there were spectators who cried out that the water would never be reached. President Frisckorn, of the Fire Board, who was standing near the new engine, grew large with wrath, and with fine contentment said: "We give a hat to every man in this crowd if the stream don't go twenty feet over the tower."

A physician here knew what he was talking about, for within five minutes the crowd was yelling wildly as the stream played like a great fountain high over the weather vane that capped the clock tower. Five thousand heads that might have been as white as snow forlorn, and President Frisckorn was saved from an expenditure in hats of $25,000.

An Alarm Broke In

Chief Fuller had his various companies well under way by 3 o'clock, and at 3:30 every engine, wagon and truck was in its place at Third and Broad Streets.

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

YELLOW FEVER IN NORTH CAROLINA

A Trained Nurse Writes That There Are Cases in Randolph County.

THE SITUATION IN PENSACOLA

It Shows Some Improvement. New Orleans Has Thirty-One New Cases.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., September 26.—A physician here received a letter to-night from a trained nurse he had sent to Millboro, a cotton mill settlement near Asheboro, Randolph county, saying there were several cases of yellow fever there, and it was the last letter she would be allowed to mail. The nurse went there two weeks ago to nurse what was supposed to be an epidemic of typhoid fever. She writes that there were so many deaths expert examination was had, resulting in discovering yellow fever. It is believed here that the disease is hemorrhagic fever.

NEW ORLEANS, La., September 26.—For the past three days, the suspicious list has been unusually small, but Tuesday's suspicious list is large enough to warrant the belief that for the two preceding days. A group of four cases, among them in the convent of Perpetual Adoration on Marais Street, was reported by the attending physician. The infection there was discovered three weeks ago through the death of a sister, and a few days ago two more cases developed. Now four more are reported.

The Fever Germ.

More interest centers here now in this question, whether or not the yellow fever germ is to be discovered as the result of the investigations that are in progress than in the fever itself, but the public is left in much uncertainty by the vagueness of the disclosures that have

(Continued on Second Page.)

17 WANT HELP TO-DAY.

The 17 advertisements for help published in to-day's Times-Dispatch on page 8 are as follows:

4 Trades,	1 Agent,
1 Domestic,	1 Salesman,
2 Office,	5 Miscellaneous.

This not only interests those out of work, but those desiring to improve their positions as well.

SCHOONER SUNK BY A STEAMER

The Bayport Is Twice in Collision Within a Very Short Time.

A SAILOR LOSES HIS LIFE

Was Washed Overboard When the Crash Came—Steamer Damaged.

(By Associated Press.) NEWPORT NEWS, Va., September 26.—The steamer Bayport, outward bound from this port for Boston, with 2,400 tons of coal, ran down and sank the three-masted schooner Job H. Jackson, from New York for Norfolk, near Thimble Shoal light, in Chesapeake Bay, last night at 7:40 o'clock. Charles Johnstone, a Norwegian, of the Jackson's crew, who was at the wheel when the collision occurred, was washed overboard and drowned, and the mate, T. J. Robbins, had his right arm broke.

After the collision the Bayports boat rescued Captain Williamson, Mate Robbins and four of the crew of the Jackson and brought them here to-day. Again in Collision.

After rescuing the men the Bayport, dropped anchor within the horseshoe near Cape Henry and at 3 o'clock this morning a schooner supposed to be the Ann B. Trainer, inward bound from New York for Norfolk ran down the Bayport, smashed in six plates on her starboard side and forward of midships, and carried away her aft house. The schooner had her fore-rigging carried away, but the masts to her hull are not known. After the collision the Trainer proceeded to Norfolk. No one on either ship was injured.

Although neither the master of the Bayport nor the Jackson would give out any information concerning the first collision, it was learned that the accident resulted from the erratic movement of the schooner. The pilot of the Bayport first sighted the Jackson with her green light to him and he gave three blasts on his whistles, but the schooner came about on another tack, showing a red light.

Schooner Sunk.

The Bayports course was changed to

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

MANILA REPORTED SWEEP BY TYPHOON

Eight Thousand Persons Are Said to Be Homeless There.

NATIVE SECTION BLOWN AWAY

Houses Unroofed, Wires Blown Down and the City Left in Darkness.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, September 26.—The Evening Sun has a dispatch from Manila reporting a destructive typhoon in that city. The native districts were swept away, 8,000 persons are homeless, five Filipinos were killed and 200 persons injured. Hundreds of buildings were unroofed.

Thousands of electric light wires were blown down, filling the streets with flames until the current was turned off. The city was in darkness when the dispatch was sent, and all street traffic was suspended.

It was believed that shipping in the bay had warning of the approach of the storm, but up to the time the dispatch was sent the ships were invisible on account of the rain and had not communicated with the shore.

News Not Confirmed.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., September 26.—The War Department to-day received a cablegram from Manila, saying that the transport Logan has been delayed in sailing from that place by a typhoon. No mention is made of damage to property.

FORT LEE MAN ROBBED OF LARGE SUM OF MONEY

Mrs. Koslow, proprietress of a store at No. 1912 East Main Street, reported to the police last night that some one had entered her store and stolen $69 and a ladies' gold watch and chain valued at $175. The watch itself was worth considerably over a hundred dollars, and the chain was an heirloom that was very valuable. The thief entered through a window in the rear.

MRS. AMMONDS DYING AS RESULT OF POISON

In Extremis at An Early Hour, and Not Thought She Can Possibly Recover.

Mrs. Sallie Ammonds, who took an overdose of laudanum Monday evening, was in extremis at an early hour this morning. She was not expected to survive the night. Exhaustion following the effects of the drug is the cause of her condition. Drs. Witten and Pitt have been diligently at work with the woman since she was taken to the City Home, but all efforts to counteract the poison have proven vain. Her system will not stand heroic treatment.

It was learned last night that the drug was not taken with any suicidal intent. It was said that Mrs. Ammonds had been accustomed to using laudanum, and that she perhaps chanced to take an overdose, or her system gave way under the repeated doses.

Mrs. Ammonds has two married daughters in Charles City. Her son is a resident of Gloucester county, and reached the city yesterday afternoon. She has been stopping with Mrs. J. A. Booker, No. 817 North Twenty-sixth Street. Mrs. Ammonds is about sixty years of age.

IT MAKES JAPAN AND BRITAIN ONE

Anglo-Japanese Treaty of Tremendous Importance.

ARE LINKED FOR MUTUAL DEFENCE

If One Shall Be Attacked the Other is Pledged to Go to Her Assistance—Guarantee of Peace in the Far East.

LONDON, September 27.—The text of the new agreement between Great Britain and Japan which was signed by Lord Lansdowne, the British foreign secretary, and Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister to Great Britain on August 12, was issued by the Foreign Office late last evening. The momentous document is a brief one, comprising less than 800 words, including eight articles and a preamble.

Accompanying the agreement is a covering letter from Lord Lansdowne to the British ambassadors at St. Petersburg and Paris, for transmission to the Russian and French governments respectively, in which the Foreign Secretary courteously reviews the agreement and carefully points out that the new defensive alliance is not intended as a menace but rather as a guarantee of peace and prosperity in the Far East in which all countries may participate. The main features of the new agreement, have already been forecast in the Associated Press dispatches from London and Paris. The pithy articles of the official text, however, bring out forcefully the tremendous importance to both countries of this alliance, which practically makes Great Britain and Japan Great Britain for the purpose of defense "in the regions of east Asia and India." This inclusion of India specifically as a portion of the more extensive area of the two insular kingdoms west and east as giving immediate relief from the dangerous thundercloud which for so many years has hung over the Indian frontier.

For General Peace.

The preamble reads: "The governments of Great Britain and Japan, being anxious to repudiate the agreement concluded between them January 30, 1902, by fresh stipulations, have agreed upon the following articles, which have for their object:

"A. A consolidation and the maintenance of general peace in the regions of Eastern Asia and India; and

"B. The preservation of the common interests of all the powers in China by ensuring the independence and integrity of the Chinese empire and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in China."

"The text of the treaty is as follows: "Article 1. It is agreed that when-ever a war breaks out between Great Britain and Japan, any of the rights and interests referred to in the preamble to this agreement are in jeopardy, the two governments will communicate with another fully and frankly, and will consider in common the measures which should be taken to safeguard those menaced rights or interests."

A Defensive Alliance.

"Article 2.—Should either of the high contracting parties be involved in war in defense of its territorial rights or special interests, the other party will at once come to the assistance of its ally, and both parties will conduct a war in common and on the principle of mutual assistance with any power or powers involved in such war."

"Article 3. Japan possessing paramount political, military and economic interests in Korea, Great Britain recognizes Japan's right to take such measures for the guidance, control and protection of Korea as she may deem proper and necessary to safeguard and advance those interests, providing the measures so taken are not contrary to the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations."

"Article 4. Great Britain, having a special interest in all that concerns the security of the Indian frontier, Japan recognizes her right to take such measures in the proximity of that frontier as she may find necessary for safeguarding her Indian possessions."

"Article 5. The high contracting parties agree that neither will without consulting the other enter into a separate arrangement with another power to the prejudice of the objects described in the preamble."

"Article 6. As regards the present war between Japan and Russia, Great Britain will continue to maintain strict neutrality, unless some other power or powers join in hostilities against Japan, in which case Great Britain will come to the assistance of Japan, will conduct war in common and will make peace in mutual agreement with Japan."

Keep in Touch.

"Article 7. The conditions under which armed assistance shall be afforded by either power to the other in the circumstances mentioned in the present agreement shall be made available by which such assistance shall be made available will be arranged by the naval and military authorities of the contracting parties who will from time to time consult one another fully and freely on all questions of mutual interests."

"Article 8. The present agreement shall be subject to a misunderstanding, as Congressmen White, it is said in the declaration, signed the original testimonial.

President's Uncle Chairman.

NEW YORK, September 26.—Robert R. Roosevelt, uncle of the President, has been asked by the leaders of the various Democratic city organizations to serve as temporary or permanent chairman of the Democratic City Convention, to be held in Carnegie Hall on October 6th.